PHILIPPE CELEBRATES 10 YEARS

By John Simon

One of our favorite New York City restaurants, Philippe celebrated its 10th Anniversary with an ultra exclusive party. In case you didn't know, Philippe has cemented its reputation as an A-List celebrity hotspot since opening 10 years ago with notable guests over the years including Oprah Winfrey, Rhianna, Beyonce, Adam Sandler, Derrick Rose, Drew Barrymore, Kylie Jenner, Kobe Bryant, Nathan Lane, Queen Latifah, Charlie Rose Rick Ross and Sir Paul McCartney. The magical evening was hosted by Philippe Chow (Executive Chef), Steve Boxer (COO); Edis Julevic (General Manager), Kostas Paterakis (Pastry Chef & Captain) on Tuesday night. The restaurant hosted a room full of New York's movers and shakers, including, Ramona Singer, Abraham Merchant (Co-Owner, Philippe), Richard Cohn (Co-Owner, Philippe), Zach Erdem (Owner, 75 Main), and Eric Coleman (Analyst, SNY TV), to name a few.

Chow's most famous dishes were served to partygoers; Chicken, Shrimp of Beef Satay, Peking Duck Spring Rolls, Shrimp Spring Rolls, Vegetable Spring Rolls, Green Prawns, Mayonnaise Prawns, Filet Mignon Tips, Sweet & Sour Chicken, Salt and Pepper Seabass, Salt and Pepper Calamari and Salt and Pepper Eggplant, all flew on serving trays throughout the night. Guests also enjoyed cocktails, provided by Avion Tequila and Absolut Elyx, and danced to the wee hours in the restaurant's entire first floor encompassing its Skylight Room, Runway Room and Lounge toasting to the first ten years of Philippe's success with top models from TRUE Model Management. It was our first outing of the new year and was by far the best way to get back into the swing of things. The night ended with a sweet note, as guests enjoyed bite-sized Key Lime Pies prepared in-house by Pastry Chef Kostas Paterakis.
