THE PAGODA HOUSE: INTERIOR

Guests enter the "pagoda" through tinted sliding glass doors. Each table has its own window allowing for an open airy al fresco dining experience with coverage. The interior is outfitted with beautiful wood floors that showcase 4x4 dining tables, floral, votives and white tablecloths. The vaulted ceilings are illuminated with track lighting, luxe chandeliers, ceiling fans, heat lamps and a surround sound audio system. Guests are protected from all inclement weather conditions.

THE PAGODA HOUSE: EXTERIOR

Philippe Downtown's outdoor dining "pagoda" house offers an authentic Philippe Chow fine dining experience for both public and private dining. The glamorous pearl and gold exterior sets the tone for a stylish event.

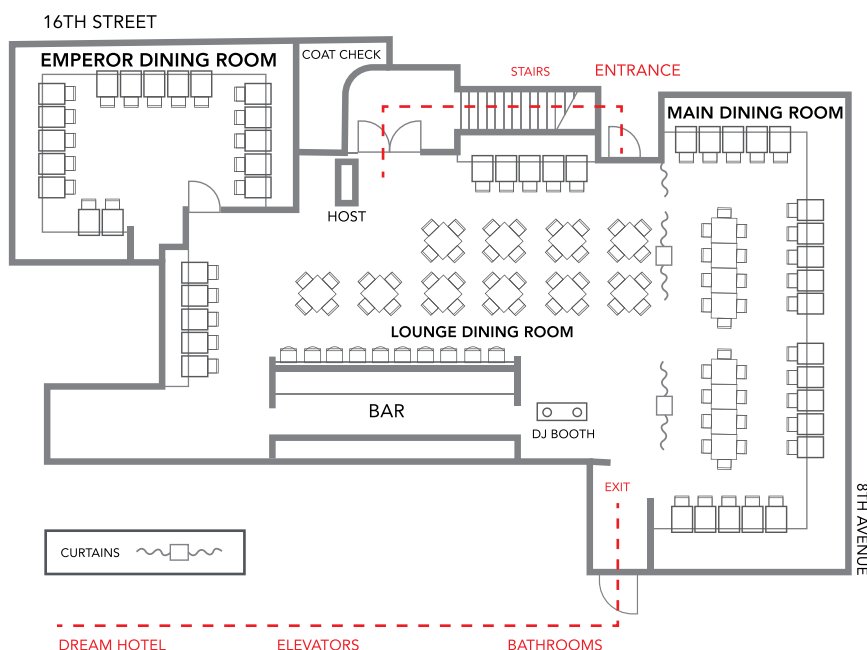

PHILIPPE CHOW. INDOOR DINING. TWO ENTRANCES

Philippe Chow indoor restaurant has two (2) street level entrances (including an elevator). The formal entrance to Philippe leads guests down a beautifully lit mirrored staircase. For those guests that prefer elevator service, they can enter through the Dream Hotel which is adjacent to the Philippe entrance.
