A Casual Date

Stir-fry is perfect for a quiet Friday night with your guy. Instead of using bottled sauce, make something easy that tastes a bit more gourmet and fancy, like this recipe from Philippe Chow, owner of Philippe restaurant in New York City: Mince and sauté 2 cloves of garlic in a little olive oil. Add 3 T dry white wine, and bring to a boil. Add ½ c. chicken stock and 1 t. cornstarch. Then just toss it with sauteed chicken and veggies.
