

NEWS/ Khloé Kardashian Has Day Date With Mason Disick After Double Date With French Montana

Khloé Kardashian has been busy with the men in her life.

The E! star stepped out of the Trump SoHo Hotel holding hands with her handsome nephew Mason Disick earlier today, looking gorge as usual. Khloé kept it simple in a casual black blouse with jeans and her hair pulled back. Meanwhile, Mason kept it cool in a red ensemble with a denim vest.

Kourtney Kardashian, Scott Disick and Penelope followed behind the cute pair.

The family outing came after Khloé and her boyfriend French Montana went out on a double date with her sis Kourt and Scott.

The foursome went out to Philippe Chow in New York on Saturday night. They arrived around 10 p.m. and sat in the upstairs dining room. They enjoyed sharing chicken satays, lettuce wraps and the salt and pepper lobster. On their way out, the Kardashians took some pictures with guests.

A source tells E! News, "The whole double date feeling was totally in the air—pulling out chairs, men ordering for the table—the works! Really cute vibe!"

The E! star has also posted her first photo with her rapper beau on Instagram over the weekend. The pic shows the couple posing next to one another, with Khloé sipping straight from a bottle of champagne while the rapper holds a gun.

"About to go guccy maaannnn #MovieSet #JustDifferent," the 29-year-old wrote.
