

Thursday, June 25, 2015

5 Celebrity Hangouts in NYC

By Maria Callegari

3. Philippe

Philippe Photo Credit: culinarygourmet.wordpress.com

Who doesn't love a good Chinese place? Philippe by Philippe Chow is known as an A-list destination. Decorated with exposed brick, white table cloths and red velvet accents, Philippe isn't your average Chinese take-out.

Philippe Chow
@PhilippeChow

Follow

The color of money, but the taste of heaven. #alljadeeverything #jadedumplings #philippechow nyc

2:25 PM - 30 May 2015

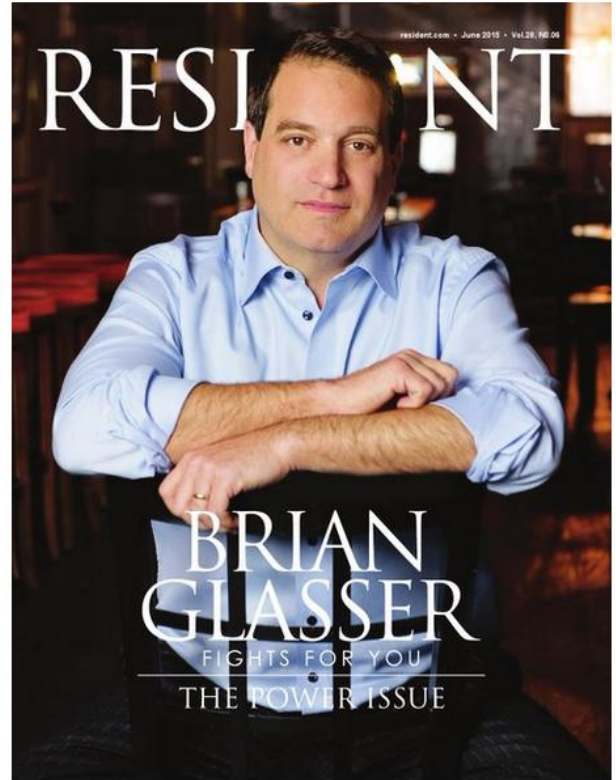

Lawlor Media Group
@LawlorMedia

Follow

Popstar @rihanna's #MetGala bashed catered by @philippechow featured in @NY_resident issuu.com/resident_mag/d...

1:31 PM - 8 Jun 2015

issuu

RESIDENT MAGAZINE JUNE 2015

Resident Magazine

View on web

To find this New York gem, visit the Upper East Side at 33 East 60th Street. Chef Philippe Chow delivers cuisine that's inspired by Beijing. Entrees are designed to be enjoyed family-style and some of the popular dishes include Salt and Pepper Lobster and Peking Duck.

Chef Philippe Chow Photo Credit: www.miamiescapes.com