PHILIPPE NEW YORK REIGNS SUPREME AS THE PREMIER CELEBRITY HOTSPOT FOR CONTEMPORARY ASIAN DINING

Since opening in 2005, Philippe New York continues its reign as one of the premier destinations for haute Beijing-style cuisine and as one of New York's leading celebrity hotspots.

Celebrity clientele at Philippe span the worlds of music, movies, television, sports and society and include Rihanna, Kobe Bryant, Beyonce, Lady Gaga, Kylie Jenner, Rick Ross, Oprah Winfrey, Nas, Sir Paul McCartney, James Harden, Robinson Cano, Reverend Al Sharpton, Nene Leakes, Charlie Rose, Queen Latifah, Nathan Lane, Drew Barrymore, Adam Sandler and Derrick Rose.

The unique menu prepared by Chef Philippe Chow personally includes delectable dishes that keeps celebrities and regulars coming back such as the famed Chicken Satay, prepared in Chef Philippe's famous cream sauce, perfectly glazed Roasted Peking Duck served with housemade pancakes, Green Prawns and the Filet Mignon and Broccoli. At Philippe, all signature dishes are served in generous "family style" portions, perfect for sharing with groups, which creates a fun and lively dining experience.

In addition to its delectable cuisine, Philippe attracts high-profile diners looking for an intimate meal with friends without prying eyes. Guests may enjoy the restaurant's expansive space set over three floors with an interior which exudes an air of exoticness and opulence, with a signature color palette of black, white and red. Candlelight casts a dim glow over the dining room's dark wood features and plush banquettes. Those who seek additional privacy may take advantage of this haute eatery's wealth of private dining options, which includes six private dining rooms along with its exclusive wine cellars frequented by the likes of Will.i.am, Jay-Z and Mariah Carey to name a few.

Philippe New York is located at 33 East 60th Street, between Madison Ave @ Park Ave, New York, NY 10022
