

Wednesday, February 10, 2016

Reigning NBA Champions Golden State Warriors Celebrate Victory by Taking over Philippe New York

Immediately following their recent blowout victory over the New York Knicks, the Golden State Warriors celebrated with a full restaurant takeover of New York haute Chinese restaurant Philippe Chow.

The team, on course to have one of the best season records in NBA history, packed the restaurant's Runway Room and Skylight Room's on its main floor with 90 of their closest friends, family and team personnel. NBA Superstars including reigning NBA MVP and Philippe regular Steph Curry, Draymond Green, Klay Thompson, Head Coach Steve Kerr and Team Owner Joseph Lacob were served a delicious tasting menu especially prepared by Chef Philippe Chow that included: its signature Chicken Satays, Chicken Lettuce Wraps, Glazed Spare Ribs, House Mignon, Salt & Pepper Lobster and Kung Pao Chicken. Guests also enjoyed ordering from the extensive public dining menu including Shrimp Satay, Salt & Pepper Eggplant, Vegetable Spring Rolls, Steamed American Sea Bass and Red Velvet Cakes freshly prepared by in-house Pastry Chef Kostas Paterakis.

Philippe specializes in exquisitely prepared Beijing-Style Cuisine, made by Chef Philippe Chow himself, in family-style portions to promote a social atmosphere. In addition to the exclusive social setting, Philippe New York is known for being a celebrity magnet with nightly notable guests including Rhianna, Beyoncé, Drew Barrymore, Kylie Jenner, Kobe Bryant, Nathan Lane, Queen Latifah, Charlie Rose, Rick Ross and Sir Paul McCartney.

Philippe is a gracious host for its clientele's private events with six intimate private dining rooms including the exclusive wine cellars for 10 to 200 guests. To plan a private event at Philippe, learn more here <http://bit.ly/SpecialEventsPhilippe>.

About Philippe:

Executive Chef Philippe Chow puts his own contemporary and upscale spin on traditional Beijing-style cuisine at Philippe. All Philippe signature dishes, like the famed Chicken Satay, perfectly glazed and crispy Peking Duck, Green Prawns, and Filet Mignon and Broccoli, are served in generous portions and family-style, giving all guests the opportunity to be part of a lively and social dining experience. Chef Chow presents complex flavors with a modern flair, bringing freshness and vitality to traditional Chinese cuisine.

Philippe has remained a hotspot since it opened in 2005, attracting a steady stream of A-list celebrities including Rihanna, Kobe Bryant, Beyonce, Lady Gaga and Oprah. Philippe has received top culinary accolades including, "Best Peking Duck" from the NY Observer and "Best in Chinese" by Zagat.

For more Information, Visit: www.philippechow.com