

At Her Breaking Point? A 'Stressed' Khloe Kardashian 'Can't Be Alone,' Is Surrounding Herself With Friends To Avoid Pain Of Divorce, Brother Rob's Depression

Khloe Kardashian may act like she's having a blast partying in New York clubs with new boyfriend French Montana and throwing yacht soirees for all her friends and family, but RadarOnline.com has learned that the tough-as-nails reality star is not as happy as she seems.

"Khloe needs to be around friends at all times," an insider exclusively tells Radar. "She just can't be alone right now."

Indeed, following their Angie Martinez Show appearance on July 24, the Kourtney & Khloe Take The Hamptons star, 30, and her rapper beau, 29, dined at New York hotspot Philippe Chow—with 15 of their closest friends.

While feasting on chicken & shrimp satay, spare ribs and filet mignon, the couple chatted with pals for "little over an hour before heading back to the Hamptons," a source tells Radar.

The normally confident sister is surrounding herself with people because she's "stressed out," adds the insider. "She just doesn't want to deal with any of her 'bullsh*t' problems."

And she does have more than a few. On last week's episode of Keeping Up With the Kardashians, the star expressed her concern about her brother and "best friend" Rob's emotional issues.

"I just feel like he needs to be around the family," Kardashian told pal Malika Haqq about her little brother, who as Radar has revealed, is attempting to suppress his depression with food, alcohol and drugs.

And it's only been seven months since Kardashian filed for divorce from drug-addled husband Lamar Odom, who she admits cheated on her toward the end of their four-year marriage.

"The way I was living is not a way to live!" she said on a recent episode of her E! reality show. "I kept in hiding every time there was something going on. I would have to lie, or conceal, or cover up, and I'm so over it!"

In addition to keeping herself busy with her boyfriend and buds, Radar has reported that Kardashian has been dealing with the stress by hitting the bottle.
